October 15 Meeting to Feature "Dessert with the Mayor"

Mayor Jerry Abramson will be the featured speaker on October 15, when the Crescent Hill Community Council holds its annual meeting. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Field Elementary School on Sacred Heart Lane.

Mayor Abramson's appearance marks the sixth annual "Dessert with the Mayor" format for the Council's annual meeting. Those attending the meeting are asked to bring a small dessert. The short business session will include the election of Council officers for 1992-1993. Mayor Abramson will address the gathering and take questions from those in attendance.

Abramson, a Crescent Hill resident, was first elected mayor of Louisville in November, 1985 by a record 73% of the vote. He ran virtually unopposed for reelection and in 1990 became the first mayor of Louisville in over a century to be elected to a second four-year term.

Abramson's appearance is an opportunity for Crescent Hill residents to hear the Mayor's views on the state of the city and ask questions or raise concerns.

Join your neighbors on Thursday, October 15 at 7:30 p.m. at Field Elementary School for "Dessert with the Mayor."

Join Your Neighborhood Council Today!

Please join more than 500 of your neighbors in one of Louisville's most active neighborhood organizations. In the last year, we've used dues money to contribute to the rejuvenation of the Crescent Hill Library, plant shrubs and flowers on Frankfort Avenue and Grinstead Drive, assist with the Reservoir Park Centennial, help give you a voice in every request for a zoning change or variance in the neighborhood, and sponsor free neighborhood events like the Holiday Open House at the Peterson-Dumesnil House and the Old Fashioned Fourth of July.

Clip the form at left - and help us do even more in 1992-1993.
